Welcome to the information page for doctoral candidates and students of the International School for Postgraduate Studies (EIP). In this page you will find information on all the necessary administrative procedures, from submitting your application for access and admission to a doctoral programme to picking up your doctoral degree certificate.

A doctoral degree is an official third-cycle degree designed to equip candidates with the skills and competences necessary to conduct high-quality scientific research. As a general requirement to register for a doctoral programme, you must hold a Spanish undergraduate degree (or equivalent) and a master's degree. Other academic credentials may also be accepted.
